

In biology, which I taught for over 25 years, it is DIVERSITY that is the strength of any eco system. It is also true for the human creative process and the dissemination of opinion which protects our democracy. Let us not jeopardize this by allowing broadcast ownership to expand across media. Corporate interests are too often with expediency and not in the National interest. Thank you.